Corner Stone Ceremonies.

About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon the surging millions began to press forward toward the site of the Rosser Buildings, drawn thither by our announcement of the ceremony of laying the corner stone of that structure. The spectators numbered many distinguished men, conspicuous among whom were Henry Monk, Esq., the famous stage driver, Jerome Thorington, Esq., from the Knobs, J. Martin Reese, Esq., formerly Sheriff of Lyon county, the famous Colonel Rosser, the world-renowned boss of the job, Colonel Abe Curry, and ourself. There was no particular necessity for any extra scoops in the line of formalities, and none were observed; and soon after arriving on the ground, and the offering of a few feeble remarks by Thorington, Reese and other old alkalied duffers, the depositing of mementoes was announced to be in order, and they were deposited in the tin box which had been prepared for the occasion—and set in its receptacle in the corner stone—as follows: An emery bag representing a woman's leg and gaiter, by Miles Wing, (Col. Curry, proxy); a dime, by Mr. Aaron Wells; a dime by Harry Zimmerman, (Curry, proxy); a silver half-dollar by Billy Wilson; a certificate of membership of the Ancient Order of Egyptian Monks, (richly illustrated and embossed) by Jerome Thorington; a copy of the Carson Daily Appeal, by Master Willie Cowan; a silver dollar, coinage of 1873 and a silver half-dollar by Col. Curry; a new silver dollar, a nickel five-cent piece, a nickel three-cent piece, one copper cent, one English three-pence and one American five-cent piece, by Col. John Rosser; a half-dollar by Mr. Marshall; a copper cent by H. T. Potter; a silver quarter-dollar by Albert Mills; a silver quarter-dollar by Mr. Cronan; a copper ticket issued by the Brooklyn and Fruitville Car Company, by Michels; a ticket to W. F. Stewart's Lecture on Modern Science, by A. D. Treadway; a copy of the San Francisco Chronicle of April 16th and a copy of the Virginia Evening Chronicle of the same date, by Alvah Mitchell; a copy of the Nevada State Journal by Farmer Treadway; a ticket to the Fireman's Fund Ball, Virginia City, by Col. Curry; a copy of the Sacramento Union of April 16th, by W. C. Stratton; a photograph of Jake Kline, by John Rosser; two colored card pictures representing the jubiliations of Prosperity and the spanks of Adversity, by J. Otis; an invitation and ticket to the Citizens' Ball given in honor of the Legislature by the citizens of Carson, March 5, 1873, by Lieut. Gov. Frank Denver; a copy of the Constitution and By-Laws of Pinte Tribe No. 1, Improved Order of Red Men, by J. Martin Reese; A copy of the Territorial Enterprise of April 17th, by Wm. Pearson; a card containing some extracts of "What Horace Greeley knew about the Democratic party," by Hank Monk; a specimen of retorted gold from Yon Bet, Nevada county, Cal., by Albert Mills; two internal revenue stamps, by H. J. Fisher; the poker hand that Tufty held when Jim St. Clair beat him, also the hand that St. Clair held when he sinched Tufty; (Tufty's hand was three Jacks and St. Clair's was three King), this and a full deck of cards were contributed by "the b'hoys"; two of the latest style gas-burners and a silver quarter-dollar, by Dick Mills; a silver ring by L. Mowe; a Wells, Fargo & Co. envelope, by T. Coffin; an envelope containing a silver five-cent piece, a nickel five-cent piece, a copper cent, a 25-cent shin-plaster and an extract from the Carson Daily Appeal with the name of the depositor written thereon, by Victor A. Muller; an envelope containing one Republican and one Democratic election ballot of the kind voted at the Carson City polls at the Presidential election of 1872, and an English shilling, by John P. Mader; a Canada shilling, by George L. Gibson; a silver dollar, coinage of 1873, and an Italian copper coin—"2 centesimi 1867"—by Jake Kline; a Mexican quarter-dollar, by George Tufty; a copy of the address delivered before the Joint Assembly of the Nevada Legislature by John P. Jones, and a copy of Governor Bradley's Biennial Message, by T. Coffin. This is a full and correct list of the curious medley with which that box is filled. The deposits being made and the lid of the box closed, the cap stone was laid amidst three hearty cheers for John Rosser, proposed by Curry and responded to by the aforesaid surging millions. Soon as we had withdrawn the severity of our presence from the scene some one of the crowd sent off and got a barrel of lager beer and they toasted Rosser and Curry and everybody that had anything to do with the ceremony. There wasn't quite as much style about this as about some corner stone laying; but it was hearty and democratic and sufficiently imposing to puzzle the Putes and Washoes who were hanging about the outskirts of the crowd.

A very handsome and nicely balanced platform scale of the Fairbanks pattern has been set up in the V. & T. R. R. Company's freight depot. The counterpoise has a novel peculiarity about it, being marked all the way up its stem with figures which add up the aggregate hundreds represented by the weights which may be hung upon it while weighing. It is a sort of ready reckoning gauge and a very handy improvement.

MARRIED.

On Wednesday evening, April 16th, at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. James Woods, Mr. Charles M. Shultz to Miss Mattie E. Ferris.

[A liberal ration of the hymenial baked viands and an offering from the rosy god accompanied this pleasing announcement. The hopeful and happy pair will accept an old man's blessing.]

Creditors Take Notice.

Mr. E. B. Rail is here now to make and take his annual settlements of all old chronic and other outstanding matters; and he desires all those who owe him, to come up and put up and square up without any further notice or procrastinations. This hint ought to be, and he hopes will be, sufficient to induce delinquents to repair and preserve their credit. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Mr. Fayer has adopted the wise precaution of placing stone posts on the street side of the iron lamp posts which stand in front of the Ormsby House. As against runaways and carelessly engineered wagon wheels they are an excellent and effective fender.

OFF FOR EUROPE.—Fisher, long identified with the St. Charles Hotel, went East last night. Tufty and other friends went with him as far as Reno. Fisher is a native of Hamburg and will spend some time there and at the Vienna Exposition. He will return here in the Fall.

From the great and increasing number of Canadian and other kinds of Frenchmen who are continually to be found about Alex. Leporte's place we take it that there has lately been a large addition of those industrious and thrifty people to our population; and from the frequent incomings and outgoings of Alex.'s teams we judge that his Spring business has opened in an encouraging and prosperous way.

The most convenient arrangement for obtaining building sand that we can call to mind is that employed by Col. Curry in procuring the needed supply for the stone buildings which are erecting under his supervision. The Treadway creek where it runs past the railway station furnishes the sand, and he has it thrown out in quantities as required and screened on the spot. Of course it fills in, by the action of the water, as rapidly as it is removed, and the railway car shops being close by, the creek and its sediments prove a very great convenience.

STRAWBERRIES in four pound boxes and very large, fresh and fine were offered for sale yesterday at Pernich's fruit stand. They are becoming cheaper and of better quality.

This is Skating Rink night at Moore & Parker's Hall. This hint is enough, or ought to be, to those who like to spin around on the rollers.
